Ultimate School Agers (USA) - Covid-19 - Parent Handbook

Response to COVID-19

Ultimate School Agers is dedicated to protecting the health and safety of your children, our staff, families, and the community. We are closely monitoring COVID-19 and base our response and actions on recommendations from Durham Region Public Health, the Ministry of Health, Health Canada and additional relevant authorities. While Infection, Prevention and Control (IPAC) has always been an integral part of our childcare center, we have adapted and enhanced our policies and procedures in response to COVID-19, to mitigate risk and ensure the health and safety of all.

The following practices will be in place:

- Staff will complete a health check by telephone prior to each shift and will be screened again prior to entry
- A screening area will be set up outside the front door of the center
- Children will be screened before entering the childcare center and monitored throughout the day for COVID-19 related symptoms
- Children will be excluded from care if they develop any symptoms related to COVID-19
- Policies and procedures have been developed specific to COVID-19 to increase the health and safety of children, staff and families
- Staff will monitor children to ensure social distancing and IPAC practices are prioritized
- Staff will receive thorough enhanced infection prevention and control, and health and safety training
- Training will be frequently updated and provided to ensure best practices and consistency
- Only one entrance/exit will be used to ensure effective screening practices
- Regular communication on health and safety and infection, prevention and control practices will be shared with families for use at the childcare center and at home
- Procedures will be updated and revised regularly to ensure best practices in accordance with Public Health authorities and the Ministry of Education.

As well as policies and procedures as outlined by the Ministry of Education, Durham Region Health Department, Region of Durham and any other regulatory body for the Early Years in Ontario.

Respect of Staff, Handbook policies and integration in the program

USA will make all reasonable efforts to help your child fully integrate into the program including a staged approach. A refusal of service (cancellation of contract) will be authorized by the Director as a last resort in instances where if the following policies are not followed.

Those reasons are:

- The child does not adapt to his or her environment within a reasonable time period.
- The child requires more attention than the other children in his or her group, thereby depriving the other children of the care that they need.
- The parent does not make an effort to pick up his or her child when the child is sick, or the parent brings the child to the Centre knowing the child is sick (noncompliance with the health protocol.)
- The parent regularly makes late payments or submits cheques with insufficient funds. The policy stipulates that in the case of unpaid fees, a written notice must be sent, followed by a warning letter, and then by a final notice cancelling the child's registration at the Centre.
- If you are late for your drop-off/ Pick-up time more than 1x in a week.
- Refusal to respect the program handbook rules, policies and procedures.
- Actions deemed prejudicial to USA's staff or to the children in its care.
- Physical or verbal violence towards a member of the staff, a child, other parents or any other person on site (immediate termination).

Space Requirements

All spaces within the childcare program must be occupied by a child and cannot be reserved.

Families are required to complete the Application Package to be placed on the wait list. Should a family be offered a space with Ultimate School-Agers but are unable to take it at that time, there is the option to either resume a spot at the end of the wait list or to be removed from the wait list. Families presently enrolled must refer to the internal wait list for enrollment changes or sibling enrollment. There will be no charge for parents to add their name to the waitlist.

Please remember that we will not be able to talk to you when you drop off or pick up your child because parents will be unable to enter the centre. We still however feel daily contact is valuable so please let us know the best way to communicate with you daily. Our Mission Ultimate School-Agers (USA) understands how short childhood is, and for this reason we strive to make an environment that is carefree and fun for children. We believe in a pro-active problem-solving approach, thus giving parents the peace of mind that they so deserve.

USA also believes that every child is a unique individual that is competent, capable, curious, and rich in potential. By recognizing children as capable and curious, we are able to deliver programs and services that value and build on their strengths and abilities, because they grow up in families with diverse social, cultural and linguistic perspectives. We are committed to working with children, their families, and other educators to create a high-quality early learning and care environment that takes a strength-based approach to learning and development where children, parents and educators are co-learners. All our knowledge and experience as educators combined with parental knowledge regarding their child provides a dynamic environment for the child.

“How does learning happen? Ontario’s Pedagogy for the Early Years (2014)” will be the document at the forefront of creating and maintaining our programs. Using the common framework articulated within the document, we strive to support the children to achieve the following goals and will meet the expectations for programs building on the four foundations for healthy growth and development:

FOUNDATIONS	GOALS FOR CHILDREN	EXPECTATIONS FOR PROGRAMS
Belonging	Every child has a sense of belonging when he or she is connected to others and contributes to their world.	Early childhood programs cultivate authentic, caring relationships and connections to create a sense of belonging among and between children, adults, and the world around them.
Well-Being	Every child is developing a sense of self, health, and well-being.	Early childhood programs nurture children’s healthy development and support their growing sense of self.
Engagement	Every child is an active and engaged learner who explores the world with body, mind, and senses.	Early childhood programs provide environments and experiences to engage children in active, creative, and meaningful exploration, play, and inquiry.
Expression	Every child is a capable communicator who expresses himself or herself in many ways.	Early childhood programs foster communication and expression in all forms.

Our Overarching Strategies

Our staff has incorporated the Early Learning for Every Child Today (ELECT) principles, along with the provincial pedagogy for early learning, to strengthen the quality of our programs and ensure high-quality experiences that promote the health, safety, nutrition and well-being of children. All staff bring to the program different experiences and strengths making a wonderful team atmosphere. Sharing their wealth of knowledge and working collaboratively, our team will plan for and create a positive early learning environment that will accomplish the following.

1) Promotes the health, safety and well-being of young children, families and educators.

You will see:

- Well organized environments, with lots of materials that are easily accessible to the children.
- Following Canada's Food Guide, our menu is carefully selected to reflect healthy choices.
- Children and staff washing their hands frequently throughout the day to promote good hygiene and to prevent the spread of illness.
- Water is available to the children throughout the day.
- At meals, the educators communicate with children, where possible, offering conversation and guidance.
- Children serve themselves and are encouraged but never forced to try new foods.
- Gross motor play is offered in our rooms and outside daily; children are encouraged to use their entire bodies to explore the world.
- Positive language that emphasizes accomplishments and efforts.
- Each room is cleaned throughout operating hours. With a thorough clean at the end of the day.
- Educators follow the health and safety guidelines set out by the Ministry of Education and the Durham Region Health Department.

Healthy Food and Active Play Make a Difference

Additionally, choices between rest and a balance between active and more reflective play are offered on a daily basis. These choices are offered to support positive interactions and assist with healthy development.

2) Support positive and responsive interactions between educators, children, and families.

You will see:

- During the process to enroll your child at our center, the Supervisor will provide you with a link to a video tour of the facility, introduce you and your child to the Educators and compile information about your child's specific needs likes and dislikes, via online meeting. This will allow staff to build an understanding of your child's individual needs.
- Our Parent Handbook provides the operational details of our programs, hours of operations, fees and payment processes, and outlines our operational policies so families know what to expect when they choose our services.
- It is our job as Educators to provide an atmosphere that makes children feel as though they belong.
- Ranging from a quick unexpected smile, a friendly wave, asking about their day past, present and future, asking them what they would like to do. Offering them a plethora of choices affords them the opportunity to explore while deciding what they would like to do. Providing a place, they feel they have ownership of and can take pride in.

- Educators use appropriate voices and make all attempts to communicate at the child's level for face-to-face interactions.
- Parents and Educators talking together, sharing information about each child. Strategies to Support and Strengthen Positive Interactions
- Positive interactions are encouraged and supported by the development of enriched environments where all children belong and where there are a wide range of interesting, intriguing, and developmentally appropriate activities options to engage children. Educators are reflective practitioners whose knowledge and understanding of the individual children and child development supports positive behaviours on the part of children, educators, and families. The focus on the positive is a key component of our affirming approach.
- Questions educators ask themselves:
 - How do I engage with children in a way that builds on their strengths as opposed to identifying what they are doing "wrong"?
 - Am I learning too? How do I respond when a child asks me something I don't know? Do I redirect the child to something else or do I respond: "Let's find out together!"
 - Am I realizing that play is something children do that is intentional and inquiry based; a way for children to express themselves in multiple ways?
 - Am I having fun? Is at least part of each day filled with a shared sense of joy that is a wonder of new learning for me and the children with whom I engage? What are the clues that demonstrate that I am engaged and interested in what I am doing?
- Have I planned and created an environment that can be viewed as the "third teacher"?
- Supporting Children to Manage their Behaviour
- Children benefit socially, emotionally, and physically from our positive approach. Educators focus on helping
 - the child understands their feelings and emotions and provide support to help each child learn to regulate their behaviour.
 - Expectations for children are clearly and positively stated.
 - Children are offered choices when decisions need to be made.
 - Behaviour Management techniques are appropriate to the developmental level of the child.
 - Different approaches will depend on different situations and individual children. Staff are expected to implement a variety of strategies, for example.
 - o To act as a mediator to help children resolve their problems
 - o To explain why certain behaviours may not be the better choices
 - o To make a choice for the child or offer choices of alternative actions.
 - o To assist the child in making another choice of activities within the room or yard area
 - o To use positive verbal and non-verbal reminders towards positive behaviours

The following are unacceptable behaviour management strategies and are not permitted at any time under any circumstances.

1. Corporal Punishment

Ultimate School Agers (USA) - Covid-19 - Parent Handbook

2. Harsh or degrading measures that may undermine a child's self-respect and self-esteem.
3. Depriving a child of basic needs such as food, shelter, clothing, or bedding; and
4. Confining a child by locking the exits of the center or using a locked or lockable space to separate the child from other children.

Any use of prohibited practices will result in immediate dismissal of staff. Should the staff behaviour warrant further action, the Children's Aid Society will be contacted, and their recommendations will be followed. The College of Early Childhood Educator's will be informed as well as the parents. USA will also file a serious occurrence report and submit to MEDU within 24 hours. According to MEDU the incident will be posted in a conspicuous place for 10 days. Any instructed follow up will also be posted.

These skills include creative problem-solving, learning to get along with others, coping with challenges, overcoming obstacles, and learning to focus their attention. These are foundational activities that promote the development of literacy, numeracy and other important life skills.

Supporting Healthy Development and Learning

Each child's specific strengths, needs and developmental goals are identified. Educators set goals through individual attention, inquiry play-based learning activities, and positive learning environments in which each child's learning and development is supported. Educator's focus on children's social, emotional, physical, creative, and cognitive development in a holistic way. This approach will be strengthened by:

1. Preparing the environment to foster learning and development.
2. Building on the children's ideas, questions and theories as observed in play.
3. A collaborative approach that incorporates discussion amongst team members about how to support deeper exploration; and

4. Inviting and engaging others into a continuing process of program development including parents, the children themselves and other community partners including but not limited to educators within the school system.

Children learn through exploration, play, and inquiry with the educators as co-learners. Educators have thoughtful conversations with children, which encourages to interact and communicate in a positive way, and promotes their ability to self-regulate. We use the Nipissing District Developmental Screen, children's portfolios, learning stories, pictures and other pedagogical documentation of children's activities to study, interpret, make visible, and help inform children's learning and development, as well as the overall program.

5) Provide both child initiated and adult supported experiences to foster development.

You will see:

- Weekly program plans posted with a variety of Educator planned activities that will be added throughout the week as the children expand on activities or move forward in new directions.
- All attempts are made to limit the number of transitions during the day; children do not spend a lot of time lining up or waiting for activities to take place.

Parents as Partners

Educators foster engagement and ongoing communications with families regarding the program and their children. We strive to build positive and responsive relationships with children and their families. We recognize and value each family for their unique strengths, perspectives, and contributions to our program. Families are encouraged to participate in our childcare activities- allowing us to partner with families in supporting the development of healthy, happy, capable, and competent children.

A strong, respectful, and equitable relationship with parents is key to our ability to fully engage as co-learners with the children and with their families. To this end, we seek out opportunities to engage parents in a way that meets their needs and build on strengths while respecting the challenges that face young families including long commutes, time pressures and the busyness inherent in raising a family. Strategies include but are not limited to:

- Working with parents to accommodate their need for flexible childcare needs.
- Informal discussions daily.
- Posted documentation of activities, interactions, and engagement.
- Sharing resources and materials about community supports and activities
- Inviting parent participation in the development of curriculum; to share cultural and family experiences
- Questionnaires

Key ideas and messages we share with parents:

- Our program is play and inquiry based because research tells us that this is the way children learn best.
- A play-based program provides the kind of opportunities that children need to be fully engaged and to learn how to express themselves many ways. We will be sharing our learning with and about your children in many ways.
- What do you think is important that I know about your child to support his/her well-being?
- These are our goals for your child/ren and this is what we will be doing with your child to support the achievement of these goals, (outline the program expectations).
- How can we support your engagement with our program so that you feel that you belong? What works for you, your schedule, and your family?

9) Actively engage with community partners and provide opportunities for the children and families to develop close connections with a range of community supports.

You will see:
